CAMPER CODE OF CONDUCT

OUR MISSION

Our mission is to share God's love and help people pursue their identity in Christ.

OUR PURPOSE

We are motivated in all facets by our faith in Jesus Christ, attempting to serve as a reflection of God's unconditional love for his people.

In order to fulfill our mission and carry out this purpose at Camp Thurman, there are certain expectations that must be met by all staff and campers.

CODE OF CONDUCT REGULATIONS

- Campers are to respect other campers, staff, and their belongings, as well as the property and equipment of Camp Thurman.
- Campers are to communicate in an appropriate manner, meaning no foul language or offensive gestures. Inappropriate or offensive language is not allowed on any clothing or apparel.
- Bullying or abuse (physical, emotional, and sexual), in any form, is not allowed.
- Use and/or possession of drugs, alcohol, tobacco, knives of any type, firearms and other items deemed dangerous is strictly forbidden. This includes all items that resemble weapons in appearance.
- Campers' parents must turn in all prescription and non-prescription medicines in CT first aid.
- Cell phones and all other electronic devices that do not have specific health-use (approved by first aid) are strictly prohibited. Camp Thurman is not responsible for the theft or damage to any personal property.
- Inappropriate communication or physical contact, including discussions or acts related to sexuality, with other campers or staff is not allowed.
- Campers are to participate in all activities to the best of their ability. They shall remain with their assigned group while on campgrounds.
- Camp Thurman staff and administration will arbitrate these rules and regulations to the best of their ability. Camp Thurman rules and regulations are to be followed at all times.

By agreeing to this Camper Code of Conduct, THE CAMPER acknowledges their responsibility to uphold these policies for their week here at Camp Thurman. THE PARENT is agreeing to ensure that THE CAMPER abides by all regulations governing personal conduct and use of Camp Thurman property.

THE CAMPER and THE PARENT are also agreeing that they understand that if THE CAMPER does not cooperate in their time at camp, or THE CAMPER becomes a hindrance to the camp program, they may be sent home for the week or a determined amount of time.
